

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY TAXATION.

BE IT ORDAINED by the People of the City and County of Honolulu:

SECTION 1. Purpose and findings. The purpose of this ordinance is to amend the provisions related to the real property taxation exemption for properties in and adjacent to the Central Kakaako Industrial Zone to provide tax relief to additional parcels and incorporate additional requirements.

Industrial businesses that are located on parcels in and near central Kakaako, as designated by the Hawaii Community Development Authority ("HCDA"), continue to face unique challenges due to, among other things, lack of sufficient infrastructure, including substandard streets and drainage. As a result of such insufficient infrastructure, greater strain has been placed on those businesses' operations. Additionally, current HCDA zoning regulations restrict allowable density on such parcels until those parcels have adequate infrastructure to sustain higher density. Moreover, such businesses have suffered disproportionately when compared to other businesses in the City due to the added burdens associated with increased fuel/energy costs, water use restrictions, and effects of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

Accordingly, the City Council finds that certain additional parcels near central Kakaako, as designated by the HCDA, which are not currently eligible for real property tax relief under Section 8-10.34 of the Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990 should be afforded tax relief under that section due to such substandard infrastructure.

SECTION 2. Section 8-10.34, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990, is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 8-10.34 Exemption—Central Kakaako industrial zone limited development.

- (a) The central Kakaako industrial zone is identified as a demonstration area in which to exempt a portion of certain industrial properties from taxation to preserve such uses in the zone.
- (b) For the purposes of this section, "floor area ratio" means the same as defined in Hawaii Administrative Rules Section 15-217-8.
